

TOKYO - CITY OF INCREDIBLE AND SURPRISING CONTRASTS!

Prague, July 22nd, 2016

The list of available photo guides in the Fripito app is constantly growing! Welcome a new addition to the list of photo guides in the Fripito application designed for smart phones and tablets. A photo guide Tokyo, City of Extremes and Contradictions, is available with a 50% discount until August 28th, 2016. The author of the guide is American photographer Brian Wood-Koiwa living in Tokyo for over 14 years.

Fripito presents a new guide that will help photographers and travelers to discover the incredible beauty of on one side ultra modern and on the other side very traditional city of Tokyo. The photo guide is featuring the most interesting places such as vibrant districts of Ginza, Shibuya and Shinjuku, traditional temples and shrines such as beautiful Meiji shrine and relaxed places like parks and Japanese gardens.

The author of more than 100 photos is the American photographer Brian Wood-Koiwa, who has also included his travel advice and tips for photographers, regarding recommended photo gear for the trip, camera settings, good lighting and the best time slots for shooting at the given locations. All the photos include exact GPS coordinates and all the content, including the maps, is also available offline after purchase.

The “Tokyo” guide is now available for download for a discounted price of 3.99 USD (the offer is valid until August 28th, 2016).

The author of the guide Brian Wood-Koiwa is an American urban/Japan fine-art photographer based in Tokyo, Japan. He has lived/worked and travelled around the world in places such as Qatar, Ecuador, Thailand, Australia, and as a Peace Corps Volunteer in central Africa, before settling down in and around Tokyo. He has been living in Tokyo for over 14 years.

Fripito customers may also purchase other available guides, among them Rio de Janeiro, Namibia, New Zealand, Florence & Cinque Terre, Metéora, Kyrgyzstan, Cuba, Iceland, Azores, China, Prague, Czech wine region of Palava Hills, Moravian Tuscany, Czech Paradise, Paris, Safari in JAR, Bohemian Switzerland, London, Dubai, Canary Island, New York, Madeira, Philippines, or Bolivia; or download a free sample of the upcoming guides, such as U.S. National Parks, Canada, Japan, Israel, Botswana, and many more.

Starting April 2016, all Fripito users have the option to activate the Premium Subscription directly in the application and gain an access to all available guides, photographic and traveler's tips, exclusive photos with GPS and offline maps for a fixed monthly price. They can choose from two options, one-month subscription for $9.99 or three-months subscription for $23.99. The option to purchase single guides within the app is, of course, still available.

The app offers two types of guides according to their content. If you purchase a guide tagged as “Inspiration”, you will receive practical information about the best times to visit, transportation, accommodation, local cuisine, etc.. Your guide will also include at least 50 images with all the technical information about how the picture was taken, and further tips, such as: when to go, what not to forget, or what to avoid.

A guide tagged as “Photo Guide” includes, in addition to the Inspiration content, a detailed time schedule which will help user to make the best use of his time.

A Fripito user can also download for free a guide tagged as “Coming Soon”, where you get a basic description of an up-coming guide, including 10 images with hints and tips. The prices for each guide vary from US$ 2.99 to US$ 8.99, according to their content.

The project was founded by Jan Brezina, a photographer, traveler, video caster, journalist, and an Apple and Adobe certified trainer who created the guide of Iceland, Azores and Namibia.
