

EXPLORE AMERICAN HISTORY IN ONE CITY - WASHINGTON D.C. !

Prague, September 7th, 2016

Welcome a new addition to the list of photo guides in the Fripito application designed for smart phones and tablets. A photo guide of Washington D.C., the Capital of US rich in historical sights, is available with a 50% discount until September 15th, 2016. The author of the guide is an American photographer Daniel Suh.

Fripito presents a new guide that will help photographers and travelers to explore the monumental pieces of American history simply by walking through the National Mall. The photo guide is featuring the most interesting places such as Lincoln Memorial, White House, Washington and Jefferson Memorial, Reflecting and Tidal Pool, Great Falls or Georgetown and Rosslyn.

The author of almost 80 photos is the American photographer Daniel Suh, who has also included his travel advice and tips for photographers, regarding recommended photo gear for the trip, camera settings, good lighting and the best time slots for shooting at the given locations. All the photos include exact GPS coordinates and all the content, including the maps, is also available offline after purchase.

The “Washington D.C.” guide is now available for download for a discounted price of 3.99 USD (the offer is valid until September 15th, 2016).

Daniel Suh is a professional photographer who specializes in landscapes. Daniel was born in Los Angeles and has traveled around the world to places like Philippines, South Korea, Russia, Kazakhstan, Mexico, England to name a few. After having lived in Washington DC for 5 years, he is now living in Oklahoma where he is discovering beauty in a place filled with tornados, earthquakes, harsh weather patterns, and thriving farm-life. He enjoys spending time in the nature and sharing his experiences with the world through mediums such as Instagram, blogging, and Facebook. Daniel was published 3 times in The Oklahoman since 2016 for his photography.

Fripito customers may also purchase other available guides, among them Tokyo, Rio de Janeiro, Namibia, New Zealand, Florence & Cinque Terre, Metéora, Kyrgyzstan, Cuba, Iceland, Azores, China, Prague, Czech wine region of Palava Hills, Moravian Tuscany, Czech Paradise, Paris, Safari in JAR, Bohemian Switzerland, London, Dubai, Canary Island, New York, Madeira, Philippines, or Bolivia; or download a free sample of the upcoming guides, such as U.S. National Parks, Canada, Japan, Israel, Botswana, and many more.

Starting April 2016, all Fripito users have the option to activate the Premium Subscription directly in the application and gain an access to all available guides, photographic and traveler's tips, exclusive photos with GPS and offline maps for a fixed monthly price. They can choose from two options, one-month subscription for $9.99 or three-months subscription for $23.99. The option to purchase single guides within the app is, of course, still available.

The app offers two types of guides according to their content. If you purchase a guide tagged as “Inspiration”, you will receive practical information about the best times to visit, transportation, accommodation, local cuisine, etc.. Your guide will also include at least 50 images with all the technical information about how the picture was taken, and further tips, such as: when to go, what not to forget, or what to avoid.

A guide tagged as “Photo Guide” includes, in addition to the Inspiration content, a detailed time schedule which will help user to make the best use of his time.

A Fripito user can also download for free a guide tagged as “Coming Soon”, where you get a basic description of an up-coming guide, including 10 images with hints and tips. The prices for each guide vary from US$ 2.99 to US$ 8.99, according to their content.

The project was founded by Jan Brezina, a photographer, traveler, video caster, journalist, and an Apple and Adobe certified trainer who created the guide of Iceland, Azores and Namibia.

Jan Brezina
